

Christian Fellowship School

Secondary History Teacher

CFS is looking to appoint a knowledgeable and committed secondary History Teacher to work in our Middle & Upper School - Years 8 to 11.

Hours

The role is for one and a half days per week, with the possibility of combining the role with other responsibilities for the right candidate.

About our school

Independent Sector, 170 to 200 pupils from 4 to 16.

CFS is a faith venture within a parent collaborative setting, where young people learn to consider the world and themselves in a Christ-centred way, and the next generation are actively disciplined to equip them to serve society creatively and courageously. School families come from diverse ethnic and church backgrounds across the wider Merseyside region.

We see working at CFS as part of our Christian calling to serve the church through education. The salary structure is consequently reflected in this vision.

More about the role

This is an opportunity to teach motivated pupils within a school that values clarity of thought and a coherent understanding of the world shaped by a Christian world-view.

You will teach GCSE History following the AQA specification. Current units include: America, 1920-1973, Conflict and Tension - the Cold War, 1945-1972, Power and the People, Elizabethan England

At Key Stage 3, you will teach a curriculum that traces the development of societies, power, and belief over time, including: The Roman Empire, Anglo-Saxon England, The rise of Islamic empires, the Norman Conquest and medieval England, the English Civil War and the Industrial Revolution.

You will plan and deliver high-quality lessons that develop pupils' historical knowledge, disciplinary thinking, and ability to construct well-evidenced arguments.

What we are looking for

We are looking for a teacher who:

- Has strong subject knowledge across ancient, medieval and modern history
- Can teach with clarity, precision, and academic ambition
- Is committed to helping pupils understand the past in a way that informs their understanding of the present
- Is organised, reliable, and able to work effectively within a small team
- Is willing to contribute to the wider life of the school where appropriate

This role would suit an experienced teacher seeking a part-time position or an Early Career Teacher (ECT) with relevant training and clear potential.

Interested?

Expressions of interest for this opportunity and to arrange a school visit or to find out more, please email ks@cfschool.org.uk. Candidates new to the school community will be invited to visit the school for a Vision tour to explain our distinctives. Upon receipt of a completed application form, references will be taken up for short-listed candidates.

Additionally, the applicants must be practising Christians (occupational requirement under Part 1 of schedule 9 to the Equality Act 2010).

Safeguarding

The Governors and Staff of CFS take seriously the responsibility to safeguard and promote the welfare of all the children and young people entrusted to our care and it is our expectation that all staff and volunteers will share this commitment.

Completion of an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) check is a requirement as part of our Prevent Duty for anyone working at the school.

Other pre-employment checks will be carried out in line with our duties as set out in Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE 2023) and these are detailed in the application form, including consideration of the applicant's digital footprint.
